

Melbourne College of English

Sample Timetable - A week of General English 25 hours per week

This is a sample timetable only. Class and Self-Access times will vary depending on class level and allocation.
Classes will run within the hours of 8.00am and 5.30pm

	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
All students are assigned 1 hour per day depending on their class allocation	Supervised Self-Access Students have access to CD ROMs, Library Books, Internet English Sites, and a range of materials to assist in developing their English skills. Teachers are on hand to assist.	Supervised Self-Access Students have access to CD ROMs, Library Books, Internet English Sites, and a range of materials to assist in developing their English skills. Teachers are on hand to assist.	Supervised Self-Access Students have access to CD ROMs, Library Books, Internet English Sites, and a range of materials to assist in developing their English skills. Teachers are on hand to assist.	Supervised Self-Access Students have access to CD ROMs, Library Books, Internet English Sites, and a range of materials to assist in developing their English skills. Teachers are on hand to assist.	Supervised Self-Access Students have access to CD ROMs, Library Books, Internet English Sites, and a range of materials to assist in developing their English skills. Teachers are on hand to assist.
BREAK
Session 1 2-hour class	Integrated language skills Communicative activities Small group work  Cultural studies Differences and similarities across cultures	Integrated language skills Authentic materials Pair work - interviews  News and current affairs Listening/speaking TV news - class discussion	Grammar Grammar practice activities Writing Writing skills workshop  Integrated language skills Communicative activities Project work	Reading/Internet Students use the internet to access information to assist them in their polarised debate. Speaking Polarised debate	Class Excursion Melbourne Museum Research for Project Work
LUNCH
Session 2 2-hour class	Speaking Pronunciation  Vocabulary Word building exercises	Reading Reading comprehension - Newspaper stories  Speaking Discussion related to newspaper articles.	Integrated language skills Students develop interview sheets, conduct interviews, collate results, write report and deliver findings.	Listening Video Note-taking skills Report Writing	Integrated language skills Communicative activities  Project work
Homework	Homework	Homework	Homework	Homework	Homework

Part-time Course – 15 hours

Self-Access AM every day, time depending on Group allocation.

Classes - Monday – Friday: AM only